

State Administration of Work Safety Declared Opinions on Further Strengthening Security System Construction [No. 114, 2012]

September, 2012. Beijing. According to the latest order from State Administration of Work Safety on Further Strengthening Security System Construction, No. 114, 2012, the Administration of Work Safety, Administration of Coal Mine Safety at all China's provinces and other central enterprises should notice that , it's very necessary and urgent to realize the importance of security industry development in China, and to accomplish the goals conforming to some principles and demands; herein, optimize the whole comprehensive system constantly, perfect the data center, set up the mobile system; moreover, confirm a complete set of adequate management mechanism; value the construction of the management system and personal training; to strengthen the organization coordination.

More specific information you may refer to:

<http://www.anxin-china.com.hk/home/media/press/2012114.pdf>