

ANXIN-CHINA will Attend Shenzhen High-tech Exhibition

November 14th, 2012, Shenzhen. The 14th China High-tech Exhibition will be held in Shenzhen Exhibition Center from 16th to 21st, November, 2012. ANXIN-CHINA will attend this exhibition on invitation with its famous iVAS-Behavior Watch, a brand new advanced video analysis system.

According to some specific data, the invited participants contains 20 National representative teams and 33 exhibition groups with over 500 thousand visitors. Herein, ANXIN-CHINA will make an important and detailed introduction to its iVAS, which is cooperatively developed by both ANXIN-CHINA Holdings Co, Ltd and Israeli Mate company. In the international top video analysis technology launch conference, the iVAS-Behavior Watch will be highlighted in the case that many experts in security industry reach the meeting on invitation. Meanwhile, a variety of news media, journals and TV stations will do the tracking reports.

More information you may refer to:

<http://www.anxin-china.com.hk/home/media/press/20121114.pdf>