

Hawell Security Co, Ltd, Held a Special Seminar on Sichuan Security Market in Chengdu

August 31st, 2012. Chengdu city. Hawell security Co. Ltd, as one of ANXIN-CHINA's subsidiaries held a special seminar on Sichuan security market in Chengdu, with over 200 clients majorly from western markets, and participants including several news media. During the session, Wang Bo as the vice-chairman of ANXIN-CHINA made the first speech. Then Hawell senior executives respectively introduced the company of development history, product features and advantages. Herein, ANXIN-CHINA also released the brand new wireless IP camera end, and introduced new business model, security management systems including ISP, ISS, ISD and etc. In the Q&A link, some clients found out the best reply according to their questions, and felt more confident in ANXIN-CHINA's products. It was believed that ANXIN-CHINA could get a better promotion in western market and bring constant benefits for China's security industry.

More specific information you may refer to:

<http://www.anxin-china.com.hk/home/media/press/20120901.pdf>