

ANXIN-CHINA Held the Interval marketing training

On the morning of August 17th -18th, 2012, Shenzhen City, ANXIN-CHINA executives accompanied partial staffs to participate in the interval marketing training respectively in both ANXIN-CHINA headquarter and Hawell headquarter. Herein, Yang Xiaodou as the sales director of Huayi Security, and Product Manager of Huayishared with them about the successful practical marketing experience. Specifically, this meeting majorly introduced how to search for the potential clients, how to find out the selling points, and how to expand the market scale. Through this training, ANXIN-CHINA has the confidence and proper strength to confirm the detailed sale strategy to present better user experience in the practical application fields including railway, jail, and petroleum field.

More specific information you may refer to:

<http://www.anxin-china.com.hk/home/media/press/20120819.pdf>