

Anxin-China Attended the Shanghai Banquet Held by Isreal Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu

Israel Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu host the news conference in Shanghai

(Shanghai-May 6th) Benjamin Netanyahu , the Israel Prime Minister, arrived at Shanghai for a five-day visit on May 6th, 2013. It was very significant for his visit to make a great contribution to strengthening the firm cooperation between China and Israel in business area. Also, Mr. Adiv Baruch , the non-executive director of Anxin-China Holdings Limited, joined in the Israel Prime Minister delegation for this meaningful visit.

Mr. Beene the Israeli Ambassador (left) and Mr. Li He the SVP of Anxin-China (right)

On that night, Benjamin Netanyahu respectively held news conference and banquet in Shanghai, while lots of global major news media were invited. Mr. Adiv Baruch, the non-executive director of Anxin-China Holdings Limited, and Mr. Li He, the SVP of Anxin-China, attended both news and banquet on invitation.

Mr. Adiv Baruch (right) the non-executive director of Anxin-China, and Mr. Li He (left) the SVP of Anxin-China

In the conference, Benjamin Netanyahu highlighted that the cooperation between China and Israel could further promote the business communication between these two countries. Accordingly, Mr. Adiv Baruch and M. Li He introduced the specific cooperation relationship between Israel Mate and Anxin-China, including some successful cases.

Herein, two parties also show the willpower to expand the cooperation extent, so as to realize the long-term sustainable cooperation. Then, M. Benjamin Netanyahu spoke highly of the prosperous development of successful cases between Anxin-China and Mate. Moreover, Amir Gal-Or, the copartner of Anxin-China's long-term strategic cooperation partner Infinity Fund also took part in those above activities.🌀