

Academician & Expert Enterprise Workstation Settled in Shenzhen ANXIN

Shenzhen- January 16th, 2013. In the beginning of a new year, Shenzhen AN-XIN Digital Development Co. Ltd, one of ANXIN-CHINA's subsidiaries, met with a happy event that Guangdong academician & expert enterprise workstation was successfully settled in Shenzhen AN-XIN. In all these years, ANXIN-CHINA constantly insisted on self-innovation and transferred the scientific achievements into intellectual right protection, which largely promoted ANXIN-CHINA to attract a lot of intelligent elites to cooperatively accomplish the innovation development with outstanding achievements. This also signs a great leap in the company's technology strategy development history.

In this year, ANXIN-CHINA will build a long-term cooperation partnership with some academicians and experts, who will make technical guidance in the prospective of this company's strategy and transfer more high-level talents to our company. Therefore, Shenzhen AN-XIN could concentrate on the key security technology research & development, and transfer more scientific achievements into production forces with bringing out better economic benefits and social effects in the scientific way.
