

Leaders from Shen County, Shandong Province Visited Anxin-China for Investigation and Study

The conference site

(Shenzhen-October 14th, 2013)Jiang Junhua, the chief of Shandong Shen County Finance Bureau, Ding Tao, the secretary of local emergency office, and Zhao Yonghua, the section chief of local emergency office visited Anxin-China for investigation and study on this morning. Accordingly, Ji Bingpu and Huang Zhongwei, respectively as the director and deputy director of Anxin-China Marketing Center, welcomed the investigation team and then hosted the discussion conference.

The conference went on in an active atmosphere. At the beginning, Mr. Ji represented Anxin-China to welcome the investigation team sincerely, and then introduced this group' s operating situation and financial strengthen. After that, two leaders introduced and displayed Anxin-China' s two star products, ISD system and iVAS system, which were well received by the investigation team.

During the conference, however, two sides held a discussion conference on investment development in safety production area. Mr. Jiang made an inquiry about Anxin-China' s organizational structure and strategy implementation. He also stated that the economy of Shen County had developed fast in recent years, which was attributed to the great help and supports from investors. After learning about the working principle and operational process of ISD, Mr. Ding spoke highly of this system which could be applied into the safety production to protect people' s lives and financial properties safe.

Finally, two sides reached a primary agreement on the business investment and security surveillance. Moreover, it singed that they would strengthen mutual cooperation to create more benefits in the long run. 🌀